DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 17 October 2006 has been entered.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 28 and 29 are objected to because of the following informalities: On line 11 of Claim 28 it reads "moveably" and should be changed to --movably--. On line 16 of Claim 28 it reads "at leas engaging" and should rather read --at least one engaging--. On line 1 of Claim 29 it reads "The surgical saw blade coupler of Claim 1" and should rather read --The surgical saw blade coupler of Claim 28--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3734

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 28 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Trott (U.S. Patent No. 5,729,904).

Claim 28: Trott discloses a housing 12 having a body and a head 28 that extends forward from said body, said head having a face and a through bore, a driver 29 having a driven portion 20 disposed in said housing and configured to be attached to a drive unit and a drive portion disposed over said face of said head, said drive portion having a through opening aligned with said through bore, and at least one engaging member 32, a pin 40 that extends through said bore and said through opening, said pin having a head portion disposed over said drive portion and said pin having an opening (next to element 44) aligned over and positioned to receive at least one engaging member, said pin being movably mounted to said housing so as to be able to move longitudinally in said through bore and said through opening, a cap 43 mounted to said pin so as to be spaced above said head portion of said pin so as to define a blade slot between said head portion and said cap, and a biasing member 26 acting between said head of said housing and said pin for urging said head portion of said pin and said cap towards said at least one engaging member (Figures 1 and 6, col. 5, lines 1-63)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3734

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 29 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Trott (U.S. Patent No. 5,729,904) in view of Evans (U.S. Patent No. 5,263,972).

Claim 29: Trott discloses the claimed device, including said cap having a bottom face directed towards said pin (see Figure 1), except for at least one bore that opens inwardly from said bottom face, said at least one bore being aligned with said at least one engaging member and said opening in said pin and dimensioned to receive said at least one engaging member, and said driver, said pin and said cap are collectively dimensioned so that when said biasing member urges said head portion of said pin and said cap towards said at least one engaging member, said at least one engaging member extends through said opening and said blade slot into said bore defined in said cap.

Evans teaches a surgical handpiece chuck and blade with at least one bore 74 that opens inwardly from said bottom face of a cap 50, said at least one bore being aligned with said at least one engaging member and said opening in said pin and dimensioned to receive said at least one engaging member, and said driver, said pin and said cap are collectively dimensioned so that when said biasing member urges said head portion of said pin and said cap towards said at least one engaging member, said at least one engaging member extends through said opening and said blade slot into said bore defined in said cap (Figure 6). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of invention to provide a bore that opens inwardly from a bottom face of a cap, as taught by Evans, to Trott since it was known in the art that chucks often top projecting elements and spindles or rotating rods and pins in order to better engage the blade member and maintain a secure connecting mechanism.
